

MĀORI WARDS EXPLAINED

GOVERNMENT CHANGES MEAN WE HAVE TO ACT
TO KEEP MĀORI WARDS + CONSTITUENCIES.

WHY MĀORI WARDS MATTER

- Councils make decisions that affect us & councillors should reflect the community they serve.
- Māori have been under-represented for too long - Māori wards ensure Māori voice.

Māori Wards mean that those on the Māori roll have their voice represented in local democracy.

WHAT IS CHANGING?

New law requires a binding public poll to keep Māori wards. This only applies to Māori wards, not to any other wards, such as rural wards.

DIFFERENT TREATMENT OF MĀORI WARDS IS UNFAIR AND HARMFUL TO LOCAL RELATIONSHIPS

By creating avenues for Māori representation in decision-making it ensures we uphold tangata whenua perspectives, we create a true partnership with mana whenua, and that we honour Te Tiriti. This not only creates better outcomes for Māori, but for everyone in our city.

Wellington City mayor

We are joining the many councils across Aotearoa who have welcomed a Māori constituency in recent years, as we continue to build strong, equitable partnerships with mana whenua.
